Global financial services firm Weybridge Assets establishes new EU Operation to satisfy Eastern European client expansion needs.

Global financial services firm Weybridge Assets will be establishing an EU-based division to meet the requirements of a growing Eastern European client base.

February 4, 2013/Singapore – Weybridge Assets announced today that it plans to open an eastern European division by the end of the year as part of a global growth push, according to its CEO and founder Mr. Michael Ford.

Weybridge Assets has been successfully operating since 2004.

Their new Eastern European division will mirror the services of their Singapore based headquarters, with its main focus servicing their ever-increasing Eastern European client base.

Says Weybridge Assets founder, CEO & President Mr. Michael Ford "For the past nine years we have been broadly working with clients outside the Asian Pacific, but through referral and reputation our Eastern European client portfolio is increasing. We feel now is the right time to have a physical presence in Europe for our already established, and new potential customers."

Weybridge Assets are currently concluding their management structure by both acquiring local talent and relocating other established key managers within the firm. "Our eastern European division will set the bar for further expansion in developing countries, and we plan to establish new offices in other countries over the next five years, to further expand and satisfy the needs of our expanding client base." Michael concluded.
